Moderato

All the wealth the world may pos-sess, Can-not buy to-mor-row,
All the clouds are heav-y with doubt, Where's their sil-ver lin-ing?

Just to lose a sweet-heart's ca-ress, Means a world of sor-row.
I would turn your clouds in-side out, If your heart were pin-ing.

There's a world of wealth in your kiss; All I ask is this: —
Would I ask for more than my share; If this were my pray'r?

Chorus Tempo di Valse Rubato

The night, the moon and you — A nest-ing place for two; —

— We'll find a lane of glad - ness, Where clouds are hid from view; — The skies a blank - et blue, — To cov - er

lov - ers true; — E - ter - nal - ly, my wish will be, The night, the moon and you. The moon and you.
